

Northern Territory Board of Studies Guidelines

Karmi Sceney (urban and remote) Aboriginal Excellence and Leadership Awards

Award

The award consists of a certificate and $500 and will be presented at NTBOS award ceremonies held in Darwin and Alice Springs in February each year.

Purpose

The purpose of this award is to acknowledge excellence in the Northern Territory Certificate of Education and Training (NTCET) and to recognise a student's development and demonstration of their capabilities as they have undertaken their NTCET.

Criteria

- students are nominated by their school
- each school may nominate one Aboriginal student only
- students may meet the requirements of this award over the years that they undertake the NTCET
- a panel will assess the applications
- nominations must reach the Northern Territory Board of Studies (NTBOS) by Friday 5 November 2021

Eligibility

Nominees must be students who:

- identify as Aboriginal
- are enrolled in a Northern Territory government or non-government school
- receive the award in the year that they first complete their NTCET
- have been nominated by their school

Panel selection criteria

A selection panel will assess nominations.

The panel will assess the extent to which the student has demonstrated development of one or more of the seven capabilities that are the basis of the NTCET (literacy, numeracy, information and communication technology capability, creative and critical thinking, personal and social capability, ethical understanding and intercultural understanding).