1. Policy

The Northern Territory Board of Studies (NTBOS) holds student award ceremonies in February of each year. These awards acknowledge the achievements of outstanding graduating students and recognise the people who helped them excel.

Some NTBOS award recipients leave the Northern Territory (NT) prior to the ceremony dates.

These people may be eligible to request assistance to cover their airfare and accommodation costs to enable them to return and accept their award.

Airfare and accommodation costs may be covered for a chaperone to accompany the award recipient if the award recipient is under the age of 18 years.

To qualify for assistance the Northern Territory Certificate of Education and Training (NTCET) award recipient must be:

- the recipient of a Chief Minister's award for the top Stage 2 NTCET student
- the recipient of a Chief Minister's award for the top Stage 2 NTCET Aboriginal student
- the recipient of a Chief Minister's award for the top Stage 2 NTCET Distance Education student
- the recipient of the Telstra Remote Aboriginal student award
- the recipient of the Year 12 Vocational Education and Training award
- the recipient of three or more awards.

Intra-territory remote award recipients who have won individual awards may be considered on a case-by-case basis.

2. Business need

NTBOS is committed to acknowledging awardees who have achieved excellence in their studies and ensuring they are able to return to Darwin or Alice Springs to attend NTBOS award ceremonies and be recognised for their success.

3. Scope

This policy applies to all NTBOS award recipients, both government and non-government. It governs the criteria to determine recipients who qualify for this assistance.

4. Definitions

NTBOS - is an independent authority that provides advice on curriculum, assessment, reporting and certification for all government and non-government NT schools to the Minister for Education.

Northern Territory Certificate of Education and Training - is the certificate senior secondary students or those in Years 10-12, study towards. The NTCET is based on and administered by the South Australian Certificate of Education.

Award recipient - is a student who has won an NTBOS award which is specified in this policy.

Chaperone - is the person who may accompany the award recipient should they be under 18 years of age.

5. Evaluation

Ongoing monitoring of the effectiveness of this policy will be maintained by NTBOS.
